

Steubenville Adult Conferences – Priest & Deacon Guests

It is our pleasure to welcome you to campus. It is both a blessing and an honor to have you participate and minister with us as we strive to fulfill our Lord's command to make disciples of all nations. The various Holy Hours, Masses, and confessions are an essential part of having a grace-filled conference, where our guests can encounter Christ. Your presence helps us to have a successful conference each year and we are sincerely thankful to you for your generosity and willingness to serve others.

Free Admission for Priests

As a sign of our gratitude for their priestly service, we have waived the registration fee for all priests in attendance at the following conferences:

- Power and Purpose Conference – June 9-11, 2023
- St. John Bosco Conference – July 17-20, 2023
- Applied Biblical Studies Conference – July 26-28, 2023
- Defending the Faith Conference – July 28-30, 2023

Note: First, should you desire on campus housing or the meal plan, you may purchase them in addition to the free admission. Second, while it is still required that you submit a Letter of Good Standing in order to attend the Priests, Deacons, and Seminarians Retreat (June 12-16, 2023), admission to this retreat is not waived due to the nature of serving you more directly and intentionally. That said, should you need financial assistance in order to attend this retreat, please do not hesitate to reach out to our team.*

Letters of Good Standing

A current Letter of Good Standing on official letterhead, signed and stamped by an authorized member of your diocese or community must be submitted to the Diocese of Steubenville for every priest and deacon attending a conference on the campus of Franciscan University of Steubenville in the summer of 2023. Please include the conference name and date of your visit to the university and address it to the attention of Rev. Bradley Greer, Chancellor of the Diocese of Steubenville, via email at bgreer@diosteub.org no later than two weeks before your arrival.

The diocesan letter granting permission to exercise clerical ministry within the Diocese will be kept on file in the Chapel Office. This permission letter is necessary even for concelebration. Although a priest or deacon may choose to not exercise any ministry in the Diocese of Steubenville during their stay for a conference, they will still need to submit a Letter of Good Standing in order to attend.

Priests/Deacons from the Diocese of Steubenville: must reach out to the Diocesan Office to inform them that you will be attending a conference on campus and request that they submit proof of your faculties, background check, and safe environment training to the Steubenville Conference office no later than two weeks prior to the conference you plan to attend. The below Letter of Good Standing template is acceptable.

Vesting

Priest and deacons are invited to bring their own alb and stole, as we may not have enough to accommodate everyone. We have plenty of chasubles but a limited number of dalmatics. All vesting for Mass will take place in the Racquetball Court, located in the Finnegan Fieldhouse. You will be able to store your vestments there if you would like. If you need access to the room during closed hours, please ask at the Conference Information Center/Guest Services (in the J.C. Williams Center) and they will be able to assist you.

Special Requests

While attending any conference at Franciscan University, you are welcome to participate in all the conference liturgies. Unfortunately, we are not able to accommodate any private (or group) Masses on campus (including in the resident halls or Christ the King Chapel) outside of the regularly scheduled conference liturgies. Thank you for understanding.
